

October is Breast Cancer Awareness Month, which is an annual campaign to increase awareness of the disease. Many of our students showed their support recently by wearing PINK on the Wednesday of Homecoming Week. Pictured here are students from Washington Middle School.

