

Washington Middle School (WMS) brought back the annual Orange & Black Day on Wednesday May 13th. Students spent the day doing community service at many sites around Washington. Students mulched, planted flowers, cleaned windows and countless other activities. This was one way that WMS students could give back to Washington. When students returned to school, they had pizza for lunch and ice cream for dessert! It was a great day for everyone!

