

On Friday, September 24th, the 4-year-old preschool class held a shapes parade at Stewart Elementary! Tara Henriksen, preschool teacher, led students through the building to show off the shapes they are learning at school.