

The Kids on the Block puppet show was presented to 3rd graders at Stewart Elementary on December 17th by the Grant Wood Area Education Agency. The "Kids" are a group of near-life-sized puppets that help students with and without disabilities understand and appreciate each other. Students had the opportunity to ask questions about disabilities and gain an awareness of how a disability can impact a person's everyday life.