

At the Stewart spring carnival, there was a student raffle which featured autographed children's books, pizza party, ice cream sandwich party, principal for an hour, music teacher for an hour, custodian for an hour, and a chance to put a cream pie in Mr. Roth's face. A 3rd grade student got to put a pie in Mr. Roth's face Tuesday afternoon on the playground.