

Stewart opened the doors and welcomed all parents for Grade Level Orientation Nights. Teachers were able to introduce themselves, share school-wide expectations, and give parents a taste of what their child's day may look like. It was very informative and FUN for everyone!